How it works:

The program consists of 20 hours of online tuition, conducted over four consecutive Saturdays, with sessions running every three months in March, June, September, and December. Each Saturday, students engage in interactive classes, discussions, and project-based learning. Additionally, students are assigned homework to reinforce their understanding and skills.

Upon completion of the internship, participants receive a certificate of achievement, validating their dedication and newly acquired knowledge. Moreover, students are required to write a paper on a relevant topic, which will be published in our prestigious academic journal, providing them with a significant addition to their academic portfolio.

"I absolutely loved the humanitarian relief internship! It was well-organized, and the topics covered were very relevant to today's global issues. The instructors were knowledgeable and supportive, and I appreciated the opportunity to contribute to the academic journal. This experience has inspired me to pursue a career in humanitarian aid."

Samantha; Student; Spain

The engineering internship my son participated in has left me thrilled. It offered him hands-on experience and equipped him with valuable skills crucial for his future career. The instructors were encouraging, and the program was well-organized. I highly recommend it to any aspiring engineer.
